

Monday 18th May 2020 - Day 11

LO: I can write a new finding tale

Today, we are going to write our brand new finding tale!

Task

1. Find the plan you completed last Friday. →

You will need this in front of you.

2. Using your plan and The Game (our model text), write the new finding tale in your book. Remember to write in the past tense.

3. Read your sentences regularly to check that your ideas make sense and they are punctuated accurately. Try to include the success criteria we have practised:

Introduce the main characters (MCs) and where they are MCs find something they have not seen before
The object that has been found causes strange things to happen
MCs work out how to stop the strange things
Everything is back to normal

an embedded relative clause - drop it in! which/who/whose,	a sentence with 3 powerful verbs	adjectives to bring 'the problem' to life...
The board game, which was covered in a thin layer of dust, intrigued Susie.	It shattered the windows, pounded the floor and drooled grotesquely.	Its crazed, empty eyes fell on Susie.

#Challenge Well done! Now you have a new story, why not publish it? Follow these simple instructions and make a mini book from a piece of A4 paper. Use this link to help you or the steps on the next page. Create your book and illustrate it. Mrs Rickword and Mrs Hamilton would love to see your published work.

How to Make a Six-Page Book With One Sheet of Paper!

1. One sheet of white paper.
12" X 18" is a good size to use.

2. Fold in half lengthwise. Also known as a "Hotdog Fold".

3. Fold in half again.

4. Fold in half again.

5. Now you have a very small folded sheet of paper. But it isn't a book yet.

6. Unfold everything. Now it is a big sheet of paper with lots of fold lines.

7. Fold in half in the middle- this time a "Hamburger Fold". Make a mark with your pencil in the center of the folded sheet. Take your scissors and cut from the folded edge to the center dot. Stop cutting at the dot!

8. Unfold your sheet of paper. It should look like this with an open slit in the middle. Fold it in half length-wise again. (Hotdog Fold.)

9. Push folded edges towards center allowing the slit to open up into a diamond shape.

10. Keep pushing edges together until diamond becomes a slit again, perpendicular to folded edges.

11. Fold one edge toward slit and the opposite slit toward folded edge.

12. Be sure to go over the creases to make them sharp. Now you have a small six-page book!
