

Monday 22nd Feb

Hello again everyone! We really hope that you've had a relaxing break this past week and are refreshed ready for the next few weeks of home learning - the end is in sight!!(hopefully!) We look forward to seeing you in our usual Zoom slots this week, and please continue to send any work that has an asterisk next to it.

Mr Dyer's assembly - website

Maths * We are moving onto the focus of Fractions this week.

<https://www.loom.com/share/1d38a2eaf2604aabb66ca8d37fd6a09>

link to you tube video at end of loom

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=362JVVxgYPE>

Fraction sheet on website

English : Please complete the recap on use of adjectives /homophones /adverbs on the website.

Phonics : Please complete the 'Long and short vowel sounds Day 3' worksheet on the website.

Reading comprehension : If you have a copy of the story 'Funny bones' by Janet and Allan Ahlberg read it! - if not follow this link!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gweOq4OT-H0>

Then answer the questions on the sheets on the website try answering sections A-D and the challenge activity if you want to!

Science: * Food chains

<https://www.loom.com/share/740317976b6e4edd9d79e262e2723213>

BBC clip -if link on loom not good!

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zx882hw/articles/z3c2xnb>

Sheets on website: Cut up (if you can) the different pictures of living things and see if you can build some food chains! Or use the pics to draw your own food chains.

