

Friday 1.4.22

Good morning!

Today's learning will be.....

Maths - L.O. To know the ratio symbol

Watch the video on the link below and complete the questions on the website

<https://vimeo.com/516637994>

Music - L.O. To understand how women influenced music

We have been looking at how women have influenced music through the years. Today, choose one (or more) of the famous musicians and find their most famous songs. Alongside an adult, you may be able to listen to them.

Spelling - L.O. To explore modal verbs

Complete the lesson on the following link

<https://classroom.thenational.academy/lessons/to-explore-modal-verbs-c9k34d>

English - Using the image below, can you write a story about how it ended up like this? Where was it going? What happened to the crew?

Notes: Today the children in class are completing their Latin test, Orienteering in PE and attending an Endeavour assembly. You will be able to catch up on the orienteering and Latin test when you return to school.

If you want to start your home learning early, I have put it on the website for you to complete.

Have a great weekend and hopefully see you soon!
