

Invictus By William Ernest Henley

V Define 'unconquerable'.

R Find and copy evidence that the poet is at least somewhat religious

V - find and copy two words from the second stanza that show that the poet doesn't choose to have bad things happen to him.

I - 'I have not winced nor cried aloud' - what can we learn about the poet here?

I - 'looms but the horror of the shade' - what is the horror of the shade?

R - find and copy a phrase that shows the poet isn't scared of dying.

E - 'I am the master of my fate, I am the captain of my soul' - what is the poet saying here?

E - 'I am the master of my fate' - do you believe we can be masters of our fate?

E - Why do you think William Ernest Henley wrote this poem?

S - summarise the whole poem in either one or two sentences.
