

Tuesday 14th April 2020 - Day 1

Over the next fortnight, our English learning will be based on 'Taking Flight'. It's an animation which we will explore as writers. Looking at the title, what do you think this story might be about?

LO: I can think of synonyms for different feelings

At the start of 'Taking Flight', Tony is driven to his Grandfather's house. His Dad is busy again with work and he has to be supervised for the day.

Task

1. Draw a thought bubble in your book. What might Tony be thinking in this last image? Using the first person, write some ideas.

2. Look at the three characters. What feelings can you detect?

Write a list of at least three adjectives for each character: Tony, his Dad and his Grandfather. Find synonyms for your adjectives using a thesaurus (find one at home or look online). Here is an example:

Tony's Dad - stressed = hurried, hassled, preoccupied grateful = thankful, glad, appreciative

# Challenge We know that author's often 'show rather than tell' an emotion.

Think of an example for each character. For example: His mind raced.
