

Wb 11.01.21 check off list

Be proud of everything you have achieved this week year 3 ☺

- I can count in ones and tens crossing over the hundred boundary
- I can tell you about Michael Rosen, who he is and what he writes
- I can tell you about Mary Anning, who she is and why she is important in our History
- I have been able to group rocks based on their physical properties
- I have read 'An Unlikely Pet' and I was able to answer questions, look at vocabulary from the text and inference answers to questions about the text
- I understand more about the Muslim religion and am beginning to understand the 5 pillars of Islam
- I have recapped my knowledge on French greetings
- I have taken part in some physical exercise this week- tag rugby and the importance of stretching
- I have continued on my journey on Charanga looking at 'Three Little Birds'
- I have watched at least 1 of Mr Dyer's assemblies this week
- I have expressed a goal/dream and set targets to achieve it

Looking at this list of things you have ticked off this week I think you should be extremely proud of yourself and give yourself a huge round of applause (parents included). You have all done amazingly this week and we are so proud of each and every year 3 child. Please don't forget that if Miss Brown or Mrs Rickword have seen no work from you this week we would like it emailed as soon as possible so we can see what you have been getting up to ☺
