

Monday 22nd June

Our key priority this week is to read daily for at least 15 minutes. By doing this, you should be able to take a quiz on your current reading book by June 30th.

Reading for pleasure - Intonation and expression

Read your book aloud today and focus on the way you are reading it.

- Intonation - How does your voice rise and fall?
- Expression - How do you read particular ideas? Is there an emotion you can show in your voice?
- Punctuation - Where do you pause? Which pieces of punctuation require a longer pause? What effect do moments of silence have?

Ask a member of your house to practise with you. Can they give you feedback (two stars and a wish)? Perhaps you could record yourself on a device and listen to your voice afterwards. If possible, we would love to receive an audio or video of your best reading! How successful were you at bringing the text to life?
