

Enjoy the Ride!

Dare you jump on board the Reading Express?

Are you brave enough to experience the thrills and spills of action and adventure?

Are you curious enough to be whisked away to explore fantastical strange new worlds?

Will your heart be strong enough to ride the emotional roller coaster of a love story or plunge into the terrifying darkness of a mystery?

So what are you waiting for?

Long, long ago in a faraway land,
Sat a boy and a girl with a book in their hands,
With smiles on their faces and eyes open wide,
They travelled along with their trustworthly guide.
And as they adventured over hill and through page,
The words came alive as though freed from their cage,
So journey they did with a feeling so grand,
For the book they were reading,
They could now understand.

Once upon a time...

Don't just stand there, watching everyone else have all the fun. Pick up a book today and set off on the greatest journey of your life!

If you haven't got your ticket yet, just ask at Reception. And what's more, it's free!

TICKET