LO: To give examples of how different people try to live their lives

Research either Martin Luther king Jr, Mother Teresa or Desmond Tutu and create a poster about them.

Maths lesson (60 minutes)

Start by logging on to TTRS and seeing how much gold you can earn. Follow this link to consolidate your knowledge of finding fractions of quantities.

Finding non-unit fractions of quantities \(thenational.academy\)

Reading

From your reading book write five questions to ask the next person that reads it. Leave them in the back of the book neatly written out. Don't forget to include the answers on the back!

English (60 minutes)

What is an expanded noun phrase? - BBC Bitesize

Using conjunctions - Year 3 - P4 - English - Home Learning with BBC Bitesize - BBC Bitesize

How to use inverted commas - BBC Bitesize

Now it is time to proof read and edit your fable. Use this check list to help you:

Self-evaluation

	I have written a moral.
	It is short.
	I have talking animals.
	It can be easily read out loud.

Added in expanded noun phrases
Up levelled verbs
Added in adverbs
Punctuated speech " "
Questions ?
Perfect present tense
Three different conjunctions
Paragraphs (leave a space between these)

If you haven't done some of these, you could add them in now!

Art (40 minutes)

LO: To review the medium and begin to gather ideas

Think back to the collage work you did last week. Half the page you cut and half the page you ripped. Explain to someone which would work best as a cave background and why? Then think about the fable you would like to retell using drawings. Create a list of the animals you will need pictures of. How many can you find?
