Tuesday 8th June 2021

Welcome back!

We hope you all had a fantastic half term in the sunshine, have had a refreshing break and are looking forward to what is going to be a very exciting half term!

Next week is our residential, so try to make sure you have everything ready to go by the end of the weekend for a fun-filled week of activities!

Mr Hubbard and Mr Pattison

HOME LEARNING

Reading – children should aim to read at home for 20-30 minutes every day. This is on top of any reading that they do at school. This can be either reading to an adult or reading independently for pleasure. At the moment, we are unable to send reading records home so if you do have any queries then please message your child's teacher on Dojo or send us an email.

Maths – there are four MyMaths activities available on the website, please get in touch if you have forgotten your child's login details. These activities should not take any longer than 45 minutes altogether. They will be released on Monday and the children have a full week to complete them.

Times tables – please focus on the 12 times table this week and spend 10 minutes a day practising. You can also practise on TT Rockstars:
<https://play.ttrockstars.com>

Spellings to learn this week – signature, awkward, harass

SUBJECT-SPECIFIC VOCABULARY

Maths

Number, place value, ten/hundred/thousand times bigger/smaller, tenth/hundredth/thousandth times smaller.

English

Non-chronological report, facts, present tense, technical language, 3rd person.

What is Latin?

Latin is the language of ancient Rome and its empire, widely used historically as a language of scholarship and administration. Much of the vocabulary in our modern language is derived from Latin and learning Latin can help you with learning modern foreign languages (MFL).

AOB

On Tuesday morning, we are having a Latin lesson and by the end of Wednesday, those children who would like to learn Latin at Exmouth Community College will have sat an hour long test to find out if it is for them. Anybody can have a go and we are going to encourage as many children as possible to have a think about it. Children will find out after this weekend if they have been successful.
