

Horrid Henry and the Sweet Swipe – Main Clauses

- Cut out the main clauses
- Put them in a sensible order
- Try adding different adverbials before and after one main clause at a time.
- Read them aloud to choose the best.
- When you have finished, write out some of your new sentences.

He snatched the jar.

He distracted Peter.

Henry dropped the jar.

The sweets rolled.

The glass broke.

Peter screamed.

He reached across.

Henry spotted Peter's sweets.

He had a spectacular idea.

Horrid Henry and the Sweet Swipe – Adverbials

everywhere

cunningly as a fox

quick as a flash

into a thousand pieces

swiftly

like a banshee

from behind the sofa

slowly

like marbles

under the cushion

on the wooden floor

immediately

- Cut out and try adding these adverbials before and after one main clause at a time