

Independent task:

Research and place the events below on to the timeline

1918

End of World War 1

1919

Treaty of Versailles

1928

German money became worthless

(children playing with money because it's worthless)

1933

Hitler and the Nazi party won the German general election

1938

The at the time prime minister Neville Chamberlain met with Hitler and they agreed there was to be 'peace for our time'

1939

Germany invaded Poland, Britain and France declared war to help protect them

Extension task:

Write a short paragraph answering the question below.

If Hitler had been killed during WW1, would WWII have happened? Justify your answers with evidence.