JupJup moved closer to Ada and started to untie the net. Ada wriggled free and held out her hand. JupJup grasped it and pulled her to her feet. He then opened his bright yellow briefcase and rummaged for a couple of moments before he pulled out a vile of red liquid.

"I need to find a way to put this in Maltraver's food," he said. Ada explained to JupJup about the Attic Club and said she would call a meeting first thing in the morning and work out a way for him to capture Maltravers.
