

Below is the title of your work with some helpful sentence stems that will help get your creative minds flowing.

Your dream for the world

My dream for the world is...

There are things such as poverty in the world I don't like, a positive change we could make is...

I could improve the way I support the world by...

If I could change anything, I would...