2. Write your overcoming the monster story so far...

Introduction

All is well in your kingdom – fronted adverbials (In the kingdom, a few days later, generously, etc.)

*In the kingdom of _____, the people lived in happiness and comfort.
King _____ was a generous and kind king who...*

Build-up

Introduce the monster and describe the first attack – relative clauses (The beast, who/which/that was twelve feet tall, marched silently to the door of the hall, The monster, whose claws were deadly razor blades, slashed at the door.)

But not everyone was happy that night, [your monster] was waiting in the shadows of the forest to...

Introduce the hero

Your hero hears about the problems in your kingdom and travels to meet your king. They have a conversation – punctuated dialogue (“I have heard about your curse,” [your hero] announced.)

Meanwhile, in a land far away from [your kingdom], [your hero] hears about the terrible events that have befallen King _____.

The Battle

Write your own battle scene where your hero defeats the monster. Be as gruesome with your description as you like!

[The monster] burst through the doors of the hall and boomed a roar that made the whole world shake...
